

April 2, 2009

For Immediate Release:

“Boston Realty Advisors appoints Director of Business Development”
Anibal Ramos, Director, Business Development

Boston, MA Boston Realty Advisors announced today that they have appointed Anibal Ramos as Director of Business Development. In this position, he will act as an ambassador of Boston Realty Advisors residential, commercial and auction services, while managing the organizations recruiting endeavors.

Anibal Ramos has been involved in entrepreneurial ventures for over 12 years. Most recently he was president and co-owner of Cornerstone Mortgage Corporation . Mr. Ramos was responsible for managing and overseeing multiple offices in four different states , where the firm originated over 10,000 mortgage transactions, in an aggregate of two billion in mortgage volume.

Before his real estate career he was involved in the publishing business from Miami Beach to Boston. After the sale of Miami beach based magazine “ Ego Trip” to a third party, Mr. Ramos went on to become co-founder and Publisher of Scene magazine. In 2001, Mr. Ramos left the publishing industry for the real estate and financial services industry.

A graduate of Dean college, with a degree in business administration is originally from the Cape Verde Islands and is fluent in English, Portuguese, Spanish and CV Creole.

##