

BANKER & TRADESMAN

ESTABLISHED IN 1872

Former Residential Mortgage Broker Joins Boston Realty Advisors

Today

Vivian Zottola has joined Boston Realty Advisors as a residential sales associate.

In her new position, Vivian will be representing buyers and sellers working from the company's new office at 745 Boylston St. in Boston.

A native of Boston, Zottola has lived, worked and studied in the city for more than 20 years. She holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Suffolk University and graduate degree in communications management from Simmons College.

Vivian Zottola

Zottola's previous consulting experience and training in residential mortgage financing will allow her to bring a fresh and realistic perspective to problem solving for buyers and sellers in today's market place, according to a statement.