Adam Schneier has been named managing director of Boston Realty Advisors' commercial brokerage division.

Schneier joins the BRA team from Cresa Partners, where he was involved in leasing more than 300,000 square feet of Class A and B commercial real estate in Boston's central business district from 2007 to present.

"Boston Realty Advisors is experiencing tremendous growth in our commercial leasing practice throughout Greater Boston, specifically in the CBD," said Wil Catlin, principal of Boston Realty Advisors. "Adam Schneier's background and experience make him the right person to handle this activity as a leader in our commercial real estate division."

"I'm very impressed by Boston Realty Advisors' hands-on, client-focused approach to its commercial real estate practice and I look forward to adding my strategic tenant representations experience to Boston Realty Advisors and their existing clients," said Schneier. "I've watched Boston Realty Advisors' commercial practice rapidly grow over the past few years and now I'm excited to be part of their team and help push the firm's growth even further."
