Jason Weissman, Founder and Principal of Boston Realty Advisors

Jason Weissman, founder and president of Boston Realty Advisors, has over ten years of industry experience assisting home buyers, corporate clients and landlords in residential, office and retail transactions. As president, Mr. Weissman leads the strategic direction across all of the company's divisions including Advisors Real Estate, Advisors Capital and Advisors Retail.

Mr. Weissman is an active broker/agent. He is the broker of record for thousands of real estate transactions in residential and commercial sales and leasing. Prior to founding Boston Realty Advisors, he served as director for two local real estate firms. Mr. Weissman quickly became known as a pioneer in the industry as he was one of the first to create unique domain names for each property listing available and offer all services under one roof.

In 2004, he was named one of Boston's top entrepreneurs, and in 2006, he sold 50 percent of his company to Lincoln Real Estate Capital. Mr. Weissman is a licensed real estate broker in Massachusetts, New York and Rhode Island. He is an active member of ICSC and GBREB. He is a National Alumni Board Member of Curry College and holds an MBA from Babson College.
